

Di-O-Matic announces the release of Teach-O-Matic: Interactive Training

Montreal, Canada – November 26th, 2005 – Di-O-Matic, a leading developer of character animation software and training CD, announced today the release of Teach-O-Matic : Interactive Training, a cd-rom that makes the learning of all the Di-O-Matic plug-ins fun and easy.

As you may know, 3ds max is a complex and powerful 3d animation software. Di-O-Matic developed through the years several plug-ins to make 3D character animation fun and efficient. Di-O-Matic brought to 3ds max acclaimed and award winning tools like Facial Studio, Hercules, Voice-O-Matic, Morph-O-Matic, Morph Tool Kit and Cluster-O-Matic. Sometimes the use of all those great tools can get confusing and you, of course want to get as much as possible out of your tool, that is why Di-O-Matic requested the help of two Autodesk training specialists (formerly known as DTS) to help you in that process.

Do you learn better when someone shows you how to use the tools ?

How about 2 Autodesk Training Specialists to show you how to use all of them together! Two of the best 3ds max artist put their knowledge training, available on CD-Roms, more than 3 hours of interactive training are available on this amazing CD. Watch them show you how to use the Di-O-Matic individually and all together. The Di-O-Matic plug-ins have been designed to work together, see how well they do. To help you in your learning process, Teach-O-Matic : Interactive Training uses scenes coming from the industry key studios.

Teach-O-Matic : Interactive Training, is designed for both the Di-O-Matic users and for those who want to have a deep look at what we do best: Great tools. Teach-O-Matic : Interactive Training brings 2 Autodesk Training Specialists into your home or office for the most comprehensive interactive training available. Teach-O-Matic : Interactive Training does not require that the Di-O-Matic plug-ins neither 3ds max be installed.
