

Di-O-Matic announces the release of the Character Pack, the most complete character animation plug-ins suite for 3ds max.

Montreal, Canada – November 29th, 2005 – Di-O-Matic, a leading developer of character animation software, announced today the release of the Character Pack, an all in one suite gathering all the 3ds max plug-ins the company has developed until now and so much more.

From now on, all the useful tools 3D animators need to create amazing characters are available on only one CD and everything within one single installer. The Character Pack include the award-winning character animation plug-ins such Facial Studio, Voice-O-Matic, Morph Toolkit, Morph-O-Matic and also Cluster-O-Matic and Hercules. All those great plug-ins will make of the Character Pack the 3D animators' best friend.

To accommodate today studios needs such as game creators, visual FX studios and freelancers, the Character Pack users receive a 600$ added value extra package: a brand new training CD, a Di-O-Matic VIP yearly membership card and many other useful tools.

The Character Pack includes a very complete and powerful training CD that explains how to use each plug-in in details, how to use them all together and how to take advantage of their production proven features within your production pipeline. To use Di-O-Matic technologies even better, all the Character pack users will have the privilege to get a Di-O-Matic VIP yearly membership card giving FREE access to all their registered plug-ins upgrades, beta versions, other next generation 3D tools and very interesting rebates on other Di-O-Matic products.
